

What is Project Management ?

Project Management is the discipline of planning, organizing, securing, managing, leading, and controlling resources to achieve specific goals. A project is a temporary endeavour, with a defined start and end time, undertaken to meet unique goals and objectives in conjunction with the development of distinct technical skills and management strategies, typically to bring about a positive change in terms of outcome or value.

What is project management professional (PMP) certification?

Project Management Certification is a professional qualification program organised and governed by Project management institute abbreviated as PMI. In professional world, Project management professional (PMP) is a certification provided by project management institute to project managers. In the current Industrial arena, PMP Certification stands globally as one of the most demanded and recognised certification.

Project Management professional stands in the second level of the professional certification programs governed by Project management institute.

About Project Management Institute (PMI)?

Project management institute is globally recognised as leading professional membership non-profit association. It administrates a total of four certification program that includes Certified Associate in project management (CAPM), Project Management Professional (PMP), Program Management Professional (PGMP) and Portfolio management professional certification (PFMP).

PMI delivered value to over 2.9 million professionals in project management practices across the globe.

What does project management methodology comprises?

Project management professional (PMP) consists of a complete project life cycle which provides end to end solution and methodology to complete any project successfully. The methodology comprises a total of five process group of project management.

- Project Initiation
- Planning
- Execution
- Monitoring and controlling the project
- Closing

These process groups play a key role factor by providing methodological approach across all industries.

Who is eligible to take up Project Management Certification?

Criteria 1: The professionals having secondary degree, High School Diploma, Associate's Degree or global equivalent should have overall experience of 5 years or 60 months or 7500 hours in leading and directing the project task individually and 35 contact hours of formal project management education.

Or

The professionals having bachelor's degree or global equivalent should have over all experience of 3 years or 36 months or 4500 hours in leading and directing the project task individually and 35 contact hours of formal project management education.

Why a project manager is in need of a project management certification?

Project management certification helps the project managers in various progressive methodological ways to handle a project effectively leading to successful completion of the project.

The certificate shows the competence potential of the professional to the employers leading to higher compensation.

As a globally recognised certification, Top level MNC's and fortune 500 companies prefer project managers with PMP credential over to Non PMP Certified.

Why get trained for PMP with Practical methods?

Practical Methods is one of the pioneers in professional training industry. We have trained over many professional who are successful project managers with leading employers across India. We are a well organised training firm with practising trainers having over 20+ years of experience in providing training to project managers worldwide.

Practical methods will issue the trained professional with the required Professional Development Units (PDU) at the end of the training. The PDU will be issued to professionals who meet the guidelines of the training program.

How should I prepare for the PMP Certification Exam?

Practical methods host 4 days of intense training program for project managers presided by highly experienced trainers who guide the professional to understand the concept of the project management certification exam as a process.

Our course kit will explain in depth concepts that will help to decode the project management process subjectively and attend the certification exam confidence paving way to clear the examination at ease.

What are the other study guide resources that help in the PMP certification exam preparations?

Project Management Body of Knowledge (PMBOK Guide) – Fifth Edition

Ok I am done with exam. When will I get the results?

The online examination will release the results within five minutes of successful submission. Results will also be intimated through email. Professionals will have access to check the results online as well with respective registered numbers.

The professional will get the PMP registered number that will give essential confirmation of being PMP Certified and it can be verified online.

Softcopy of the results will be available on PMI website within 2 to 3 business days from the date of examination. The professionals can login with the respective registered numbers on the website.

Hard copy of the PMP certificate will be delivered to the respective address enrolled within 30 business days.

How long my PMP Certificate is valid and are there any renewal criteria?

Yes. The pmp certificate is valid for 3 three years only.

After three years, PMI mandates continuing Certification Requirements CCR that the PMP certified professional should acquire 60 Professional Development units in order to maintain the credential of being PMP Certified.

Information is not enough? It's time to talk to our experts.

Practical Methods IT Services Pvt Ltd

410/411, Prestige Centre Point,
Cunningham Road,
Bangalore – 560052.

Ph1: +91 80 6999 9560

Ph2: +91 8147 031 504

Email: support@practical-methods.com